This week's focus: Penponds Family Festival

Tickets for the Penponds Family Festival are now available! There is something for all members of the family, from the young to the young at heart! Activities range from Sports for Tots, skate park fun to live bands! So please come along and support the school and a fantastic charity -The National Autistic Society. We are looking forward to seeing you!

Penponds School and the Penponds Family Festival Team

(Additional ticket application forms can be collected from the school office – if you are unable to buy tickets before Wednesday they will be available on the evening).

Hit the surf with the RNLI!

Last Friday Tregonning class travelled to Hayle Surf Life Saving club to take part in Hit the Surf, an annual lesson in surfing, lifeguard skills and beach safety. The whole class learnt how to rescue someone drowning in the sea with a Rescue Tube, paddled a mini rescue board into the surf and kept up with the tide as it raced up the beach. All the photos and videos are on the school website:

National Lobster Hatchery Visit

On Monday the whole school met Cate from the National Lobster Hatchery in Padstow to learn about the lifecycle of a Lobster as part of their class topics this term. The children handled various Lobster claws, saw a Lobster moult its shell and examined baby Lobsters in test tubes. Did you know that Lobsters never stop growing and only die when something else eats them?

Surfers against Sewage cake sale and non-school uniform day

We are still counting up the money raised for Surfers Against Sewage from our Cake sale and non school uniform day. We are planning to present the money to Surfers Against Sewage when we see them next week at Portreath for our workshop. Thank you very much for the support.

Carnyorth Camp

Next week year 3/4 and some of year 5/6 will travel to Carnyorth for their residential visit. They will make coracles, learn archery, scale the climbing wall and be set Cluedo challenges around the centre. Let's hope the weather improves!

Anthony James Olympic Athlete visit

A huge thank to our school community for the sponsorship money raised from the visit of Anthony James, Team GB Olympian, to the school. We collected £652 in sponsorship money which we are now able to use to purchase new sports equipment for the children. The wristbands and posters have been despatched and will be handed out soon.

Bugsy Malone – Wednesday 19th and Thursday 20th July from 6.30 to 7.30pm. save the date

Tregonning and Trencom class have begun working on our end of term summer musical, Bugsy Malone. The musical is similar to the classic film with splurge guns, pedal cars and lots of great songs. The children are planning to perform the show in the hall that will be transformed in 'Fat Sam's Grand Slam' on Wednesday 19th and Thursday 20th July from 6.30pm-7.30pm.

Penponds Fitness circuits

Miss Marsh is also a qualified fitness instructor and runs evening classes at Penzance Leisure centre. She is able to run an adult fitness class in the hall on Wednesday evenings for any parents/carers who may be interested for a small charge. If you are keen to attend the circuits please email secretary@penponds.cornwall.sch.uk and we will see if the circuits are viable.
