Class 1 Visitor

There has been an interesting case for the Police Detectives in Class 1 to investigate. Overnight some rather large eggs appeared in the classroom and the children have been trying to find clues to solve the identity of the mystery layer! In doing so, they have been practicing their writing skills as they compile an evidence report for the police! For more pictures follow us on Twitter - @steammillspri

Inter-generational Project

Our project working alongside Crossroads Care continued this week. The children sang 'It's a long way to Tipperary' along with their new friends before continuing with their art project. For more pictures, see our Twitter page.

Attendance Policy

In line with the new guidelines from the Local Authority, a new attendance policy is in place. Please note that the protocols for fining for unauthorised absence, including holidays has changed. A copy of the policy is available for you to read on the school website.
