

Half Term

So we have all made it to half term and a massive well done to all of you for the work you are doing at home. We know it is not easy juggling home life with home learning but you have done brilliantly and remember don't be too hard on yourselves. Some days will be easier than others but we will get through this together and there is a light at the end of the tunnel. As you will be aware, we are waiting in anticipation for further announcements from Boris Johnson on 22nd February and will communicate to you any information as we have it. Thank you all for your continued support and we hope you take the opportunity during half term to take a break and recharge. Hopefully the weather will improve and aid pupils, parents and staff in our attempts at some relaxation activities.

The most popular way of connecting with parents is through Facebook and Twitter. If you have not already, please like our Facebook page and follow us on Twitter.

Young Minds

Times are tough for many people right now. Parents find themselves pulled in many different directions and children may be struggling being in the house for so much longer than usual.

A mixture of concern about Covid, working from home and with children at home, along with a possible financial impact, can make for a stressful household.

Young Minds have created a useful 'Supporting Parents Helpfinder'. By answering six questions, parents can find out how to support their child's mental health during the pandemic (and beyond).

Find the help finder here: <https://youngminds.org.uk/supporting-parents-helpfinder/>
