

One wish!

One Friday afternoon, when everyone was heading home from school, the two best friends stood before one another. Their names were Theo (he was a bit selfish) and Lucas (he was a really good friend) Then Theo, all of a sudden started to stare at something.

“What are you looking at?” Lucas asked confused

“Well, it looks like something is over there,” explained Theo.

Theo ran over to it and picked it up. It was beautiful, it was shiny and bright and it had points in every possible way, it was ruff and curved...

He called it a MAGIC CRYSTAL!!

He picked it up and bolted straight to Lucas.

“Lucas!” shouted Theo.

“What Theo, what is it?” asked Lucas.

“I just found this crystal, just sitting there,” said Theo.

“There's a note,” Theo told Lucas.

“It read,”...

This crystal will grant you the power of just one wish, use it wisely...

Oh also shake it while thinking what you want and it will happen.

Straight away Theo knew what he was going to wish for.

“Hey Lucas I know exactly what I want to wish for,” explained Theo.

“Oooo what is it,? Asked Theo anxiously.

“I am going to make my sister disappear!” Theo said like he had accomplished something great.

“Are you sure?” asked Lucas.

“Does it matter?” Theo angrily said.

“Well you will probably miss her,” Lucas smugly argued.

“It's none of your business!” Theo said while walking off in a stroppy attitude.

Later that night, when Theo's sister went to sleep, Theo snuck into her room and started to shake the crystal and...

“I wish Theo thought, for my sister to disappear...

BOOM! BASH! BOSH!

She was gone. Theo did not expect it to work, he started to panic so he ran down the stairs to see if she was there, but then he thought there's no use.

“What have I done,” he thought....
