

Newsletter 15

Dear Parents.

We are at that time of the year when children are prepared for the transition to their new classes. Our move up time is during the day on Thursday 5th July. In these sessions, children will get the opportunity to meet their new teachers and assistants, and to ensure that they are ready for the move in September.

We are able to announce that there will be little change in the staffing for next year, and the class teachers for September are listed below:

Reception. Miss Bennett, supported by Miss. Thomas

Year 1 Ms Dolman, supported by Mrs Gardner and Mrs Griffin (Thursdays)

Year 2 Mr Avraamides, supported by Mrs Page

Year 3 Miss Brickell, supported by Mrs Cole

Year 4 Mrs Young (M,T) and Mrs Hayward (W,T,F), supported by Mrs Smith

Year 5 Mr Kuschel, supported by Mrs Buncombe (M,T) and Mrs Partridge (W,T,F)

Year 6 Mr Luxton, supported by Mrs Buncombe (W,T,F)

Ms Adams will continue in her part time role as SENCo.

School Library Books

If your child has a school library book at home, please ensure the book is returned to school by Friday 13th July. Thank you.

Free Hockey Taster Session

On Weds 11th July from 4.30-6.30pm, Keynsham Hockey Club are holding a free taster session at Wellsway School, Keynsham for children in Year 4 – 6. If you are interested please contact academy@keynshamhockey.club All equipment provided.

Parking

Parking around the school is still an issue. Please can parents be mindful of immediate residents' driveways and parking spaces when parking at the beginning and end of the day.

Head lice again

It has come to our attention again that head lice seem to be around again, particularly in year 5 and year 2. Please check your child's hair thoroughly and regularly for the lice. If you need advice on removing them, please look online or come and ask at the school office.

Change of Date

Owing to the date of the Ali Baba performance, we have decided to move Lynx Class (Yr5) class assembly from 9th July to a new date of Tuesday 17th July at 8:55am. This will mean that the children can just concentrate on one set of scripts at a time! Apologies for an inconvenience caused by this.

Maggs Twins

We are delighted to announce that Mrs Maggs, who left our school at the end of last year, has given birth to twin boys. They are now six weeks old and called George and Thomas!

Get Earthwise

Earthwise are holding a summer forest school in a private woodland and meadow in Chew Stoke, £29 per session. Expect campfires, rope swing, den building, natural craft, woodland games and much more. Dates are Mon 30th July, 6th August, 13th August, Thurs 23rd Aug, Fri 31st Aug. For more info and to book please visit: getearthwise.co.uk

Dinner Money and Other Outstanding Payments

As we are nearing the end of the school year, please can you check your Parent Pay accounts to settle all outstanding balances for dinner money, breakfast club, after school club and school trips. It is extremely important that all accounts are brought up to date. Any credits left on Year 6 pupil accounts will be transferred to younger sibling or refunded to your payment card.

Summer Tennis Camp

Lynden Whaley who runs the tennis club at Winford School is holding a summer tennis camp at Long Ashton tennis club. The dates are 23rd & 24th July, 13th & 14th August, 20th & 21st August 1pm-4pm. Celebration Assembly Certificates

Lion	w/e 15.6.18 The Whole of Lion Class for being so sensible and well behaved on our trip to Folly Farm. Tilly and Dillion, for their lovely writing about our trip, they remembered lots of details and tried very hard to sound out each word independently. w/e 22.6.18 Oscar and David for really impressing us with their shape work this week. They remembered lots of 2d shapes and then were very quick to learn the names of the 3d shapes. w/e 29.6.18 Fleur and Lola for always being really helpful in the classroom. They never need prompting to tidy up and can be trusted to carry out important jobs. Louie, Jemima and Amelia for making such amazing progress with their reading, by reading so often at home.
Leopard	w/e 15.6.18 Elsa for writing all about Mr and Mrs Grinling in "The Lighthouse Keepers Lunch" Olivia for continued progress in reading. Isobel for becoming so much more independent. Well done Isobel. w/e 22.6.18 Darcey and Reggie for both writing fantastic friendship prayers. It showed that you care for your friends and are thankful for all of the good things you share with them. Well done you two! w/e 29.6.18 To the Whole of Leopard Class, a massive well done for the assembly. I know that you were all nervous about standing up and talking in front of the school and your parents, but you did such a great job. I'm very proud of you all.

Panther 	w/e 15.6.18 Phoebe for working so incredibly hard with all her literacy work this week. We've been describing characters and settings and she really impressed me with her choice of words and use of conjunctions to create longer sentences! Well done! Archie for practising his independent writing, doing a fantastic job this week of creating a descriptive sentence with good adjectives, then checking his work carefully. Keep it up, Archie! w/e 29.6.18 Hannah for demonstrating a positive attitude to school and learning all year. She's really impressed me with her determination and the progress she has made, especially in P.E and athletics! Zach for always focusing well and works hard, no matter the task. He always impresses me with his determination and willingness to accept a challenge.
Tiger 	w/e 15.6.18 Mia for such fantastic improvement in her writing this week. Mia's handwriting and spelling have both shown amazing progress this week which is so very pleasing to see. Mia wrote the most incredible diary entry using fantastic word choices. Please keep this brilliant work up Mia! Kai has had a much more focused attitude with his writing this week and managed to write a page with beautiful handwriting. Keep it up! w/e 22.6.18 To all of the Tigers for such a brilliant assembly on Thursday. They all delivered it clearly, confidently and with enthusiasm. They were all fab and I was so proud of them all! Well done Tigers! w/e 29.6.18 To all of Tigers for such brilliant behaviour on the school trip to the Bristol Museum. All of you reflected the school values and were an absolute delight to take. Reggie for a much more focused attitude recently. This week Reggie has got on independently to do some lovely writing and took on feedback to improve his work. Well done Reggie, keep this up. Megan for a brilliant, well written story. Quality remained throughout her 3 – 4 page story and was lovely to read. Well done for showing great determination to finish it as well as you started it!
Jaguar 	w/e 15.6.18 Mia for always coming to school with a positive attitude and a smile. You are consistently kind and helpful in the classroom and tackle every challenge with enthusiasm! Samuel for always listening attentively and taking a positive attitude to your learning across all subjects, but particularly in maths where you show a fantastic sense of determination and perseverance. Well done! Marlena for thinking really carefully when we learned about facts and opinions in newspaper reports. You explained why statements were factual and you were able to pick them out of a real example of a newspaper report. w/e 22.6.18 Sophie and Saskia for demonstrating a fantastic sense of perseverance in maths over the last few weeks. They have worked really hard to understand fractions and use them in different calculations! Well done! Oscar for focusing really hard this week in maths, using determination and listening to instructions to understand how to use fractions in different calculations. Finley for showing a great sense of curiosity and enthusiasm in our ukelele lessons. He listens really carefully, helps others and plays beautifully! w/e 29.6.18 Isabel for focusing really hard this week on your writing, to produce an interesting and accurate newspaper report about the discovery of Tutankhamun's tomb. You chose some fantastic vocabulary and included all of the features we learned about. It's shaping up to be fantastic! Riley for always being enthusiastic and positive about your topic learning and approaching our topics with a great sense of curiosity. He has created some amazing Egyptian artefacts this term. Well done!

Lynx  <small>shutterstock - 107780004</small>	w/e 15.6.18 Honey for showing fantastic listening skills and putting in 100% effort in her learning. Honey sets an excellent example to her classmates as she always wants to challenge herself and find out more. Isabelle, Poppy, Henry, Finley L and Jack, for their participation in the Bristol Together Championships. They behaved well, they were enthusiastic throughout and mixed so well with their Year 5 team mates from Barton Hill Academy. w/e 22.6.18 Scarlett, Kintija and Cassidy for setting a very high professional standard with their bread-making. They were very sensible and worked well as a team. Well done! w/e 29.6.18 George for making a fantastic effort learning his lines for the play and showing growing confidence with his acting. Keep going!
Puma 	w/e 15.6.18 Freya V and Kieron for already learning most of their lines for the Year 5 and 6 production and delivering them with quality and expression. Oliver and Olivia for impressing Mrs Buncombe with their organisational skills and creative ideas whilst making props. w/e 22.6.18 Max for impressing Mrs Buncombe with his quality bread-making skills. Ava, Tori and Freya P for their quality chilli making skills. w/e 29.6.18 Enya, Olivia and Lauren for their great start on turning old violins into pieces of art.
Footballer of the week 	w/e 15.6.18 For marshalling his defensive unit before unexpectedly striding forward to smash in a long range thunderbolt in top bins! – Oliver ‘Captain Marvel’ Wright Girls Footballer of the week Tori – for showing great progress with her shooting and winning in our game of one vs one. w/e 22.6.18 For scoring 5 goals in the 19-0 win against Fairfield School and also being responsible and falling back to cover in defence – Noah A w/e 29.6.18 For both scoring hat-tricks and getting several assists – Harry and Jake C
