

Three Bridges School Newsletter

December 2019

Overview

Suddenly it is that time of year again and the Christmas season is fast approaching! We have lots of news to share and a few reminders.

Parent/Student Event

On the calendar that you received at the beginning of the year the 19th is marked as a Parent/Student event. We have replaced this with individual meetings and will be finishing at the usual time of 3pm.

Ofsted

As you will be aware, we had a 3-day inspection at the end of last month. Many of you spoke directly to the inspector for which we are very grateful. The final report will be published online at the end of this month or early in the New Year.

E- Safety and Safeguarding

The CEOP Think u know website is a very informative site for parents and carers who may have concerns about what their child may access via the internet. It has some extremely helpful hints and tips.

We are part of Operation Encompass and receive updates from the police as necessary regarding any pupils who are witness or subject to police attended incidents. Click here for more info about Operation Encompass

Other News

Christmas Jumper Day

On the 19th December students and staff may wear their Christmas jumpers to celebrate the end of term if they would like to.

Spare clothing for students

Please could we ask parents to provide a spare set of clothes which could remain in school for their child. Due to the unpredictable nature of the Cornish winter weather it would be useful for all students to have a set of spares. Warm coats and waterproofs are also necessary at this time of year, particularly as we try to make good use of clear, dry weather.

Eco Committee

We are currently working towards gaining a bronze award as part of our plan to become an Eco School. Next term we will be looking closely at habitats and the ocean environments within our local area. Our Eco committee is currently Dylan B, Kieran and Sam but we will be looking to add some new members next term.

Student participation

Last week Sam, one of our students, was invited to participate in the interviews for the new Head of Education for Cornwall. Sam met with a number of other students from across Cornwall who all asked questions to the applicants about issues that were important to them.

We look forward to working hard with the students for the rest of this term, which ends on 19th December at 3pm and wish you all a very enjoyable and happy Christmas.
