

Forest School Blog

Monday 26th November

Our tree planters are ready to get planting. They are geared up with appropriate clothes to do the job! Mrs Hacking, Mrs Ruane and the team planted approximately 40 saplings. They planted them around our forest school to add to the trees already planted by KAM Landscapes. Everybody hopes they all grow! Well done to the team for their hard work!

Thanks for reading!

By the forest school bloggers.