Friday 1st March 2019

Dear Parents/carers,

World Book Day: Friday 8th March (next week)

Dress up: To celebrate World Book Day, we would like the children to come to school in their pyjamas/onesies all ready for a bedtime story with hot chocolate and biscuits. The children will spend the afternoon in their Family Groups having fun with book related activities.

Book Swap: Also the children are welcome to bring in a book to allow them to take part in a book swap. The books need to be in good condition and of a good quality so that everyone goes home happy with a 'new to them' book. So that there are enough age appropriate books, we need the older children to bring in a book that they have read recently (not one that they read when they were younger).

Sponsored Reading Challenge: For those children who have been doing the reading challenge, please bring in the reading sheets on Friday 8th March, to show their teacher that they have completed all of the reading jobs. After this the children will be able to collect their sponsor money.

Is your child safe online?

I have left this reminder on our newsletter because of recent concerns. Have a look at our website for schools advice and further links for you to access help and support in keeping your children safe.

Please take some time to discuss internet safety with your children and maybe have a look at what they are accessing online.

Do you always know what your child is watching on youtube? Is your child playing a 12/16/18 rated game? Does your child actually know the person they are messaging? Has your child shared personal information about themselves online including their phone number?

For vital information for parents about online safety, please click the hyperlinks or visit our website for further links and information.

Parking safely and courteously: Please remember to make sure that you take care when parking and don't block the roads for other users or driveways. We don't want a child to be harmed before everyone takes notice.

It may be safer to park further away and take a short walk.

Pre-School news

This week we have been reading supertato. The children have enjoyed this book and have been acting out superheroes in their role play. As next Friday is World book day, we are inviting the children to bring in their favourite book share. The children may also dress up as their favourite book character all week if they wish.

Thank you to those who have ordered dinners online. This has been successful.

It will also help us to keep everyone informed of PTFA events and allow parents to become involved in specific activities and help out where they can, even if they can't make meetings.
