Newsletter No. 19

Dear Parents/Carers

BBC Radio Two 500 Words Competition

Following on from Sadhbh's huge success in winning the BBC Radio Two 500 Words Competition last June, she, along with other Year Six writers, has introduced this year's competition in Collective Worship this week. You may well hear the children talking about it, and possibly bringing it home as a homework activity in the coming weeks. Having had the aged 9-13 national winner last year, it would be great to do well again this year!

World Book Day

As you know from previous newsletters, it is World Book Day on Thursday 7th March and once again the children are invited to come to school dressed as a well-known book character. I look forward to seeing their outfits!

Scholastic Book Fair

We will again have the Scholastic Fair on Thursday 7th, Friday 8th and Monday 11th March. This year, some of the Year Six children will be helping to lead it. All the children will receive a book voucher that can be spent either at the book fair or at local book shops.

Girls' Football

Our girls' football team drew their first league match of the season 1-1 against Queen Emma's. Although we dominated the match, we couldn't find a winner on this occasion. Well done to all for a well-earned point.

BSA Quiz

Please note that the BSA Quiz, originally scheduled for Friday 1st March, has been moved to Friday 8th March. More details, including information about tickets etc, will be distributed after Half Term.

Guns N' Roses Guitarist

The Guns n' Roses guitarist, Bumblefoot, will be visiting Fat Lil's in Corn Street from 4.00 to 7.00pm on Tuesday 26th February. If your child learns the guitar in school, they have the opportunity to attend this event. Please let me know by Monday 25th February if you are interested. There is a maximum of 10 places for our school and children should be accompanied by their parents.

I hope you all have an enjoyable Half Term break and look forward to seeing you on Monday 25th February.

Yours sincerely

Chris Payne
