JRSO Newsletter

Spring 2018

Welcome to the Spring edition of the JRSO Newsletter.

This term we're focusing on how our noticeboards can reflect our New Year's Resolutions and the upcoming WOW Badge Design Competition.

With two terms to go of the year there's still lots of time to encourage your friends to walk, cycle, and scoot to school safely.

Keep reminding everyone about the importance of wearing bright and fluorescent clothing in the dark—Be Bright Be Seen to stay safe!

JRSO Noticeboard

Have you looked at our noticeboard yet? Well if you haven't we recommend that you should.

It is 2018 now and most people make New Year's Resolutions, we hope that you have made one that is connected with how you travel to school.

On our noticeboard you will find some resolutions that we hope will improve the way you travel to school.

You can walk, scooter, cycle and Park and stride. All of these things will help to make our school a safer place to come to.

WOW Badge Competition

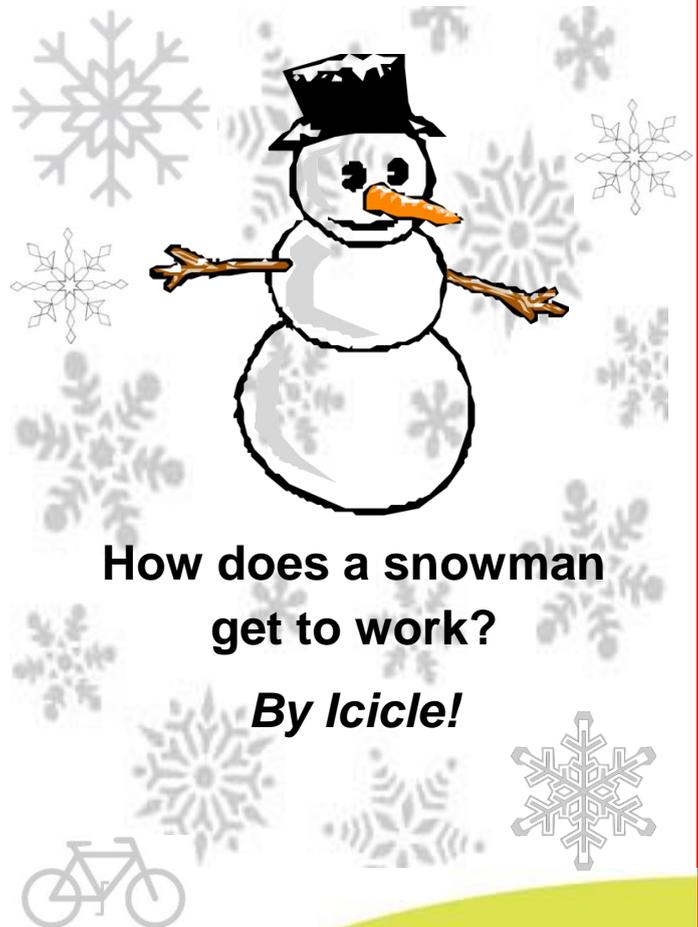

Join the national competition to design your very own WOW badge.

From around the country, 11 designs will be chosen to be turned into next year's monthly WOW badges.

This year's theme is Walk the Seasons.

We are looking for badge designs that reflect a year's journey through autumn, winter, spring, and summer.

What do you see on your way to school? What animals and nature can be found in your local area?

How does a snowman get to work?

By Icicle!
