This week's focus:

Welcome back!

We have had a wonderful start to term. The children have come back full of energy and ready to learn. I have been made to feel so very welcome by the children, staff, parents and governors – thank you.

We have some new members of staff in the Penponds team – Miss Brownlow teaching in Trencrom, Mrs Greenaway working across the school, Miss Bray supporting in Carn Brea and Mrs Young joining our cleaning staff. I know you will give them all a very warm, Penponds welcome.

The start of a new year is very busy time and feels like a fresh start; new classes, new teachers, new books and new topics! In assembly this week we talked about making the most of the fresh start and ensuring we let our light shine by always showing what we are capable of and being the best version of ourselves. We thought about “Confident Camel” who has a positive approach to new challenges and shows resilience even when something is really difficult. We agreed that we would be trying hard to always demonstrate our talents and abilities in everything we do.

I am really excited about working here at Penponds and look forward to getting to know staff and children better over the coming weeks. I am trying my very best to learn as many names as possible – thank you for being so patient!

Have a lovely weekend – here's hoping that the sun returns soon!

Re: Roald Dahl Day on Friday 13th September.

Dear Parents,

Next Friday it is 'Roald Dahl Day 2019' and on this special day we will be reading and sharing Roald Dahl stories, exploring characters and discovering more about the amazing author himself.

On the day children can choose to come to school dressed up as a character from a Roald Dahl story or dress up as another book character. There is a voluntary contribution of 50p for dressing up. The money raised will be collected for the Roald Dahl's Children's Charity. This charity funds specialist nurses for children with serious illness.

If you need inspiration for a costume have a look at the Roald Dahl website www.roalddahl.com. Children can also bring in their favourite Roald Dahl book if they wish to.

Many thanks for your continued support.

Miss Souch

Weather Watch!

It was quite chilly and damp at break and lunch time today – please ensure that children have their coats with them – we try and get outside whenever we can. Thank you.
