Headteacher: Ms Theresa Mills, M.Ed

Dear Parents and Carers

Our 'wow week' this term is Amazing Africa. This will take place the week beginning 30th October (when we come back after half term). At our staff meeting on Tuesday lots of exciting ideas were shared and we are looking forward to a week that will really enrich our curriculum. Thank you Susie for also joining us and for your excellent artistic input.

To start the week off with a real 'wow', we would like the children to come to school dressed with the theme of 'Amazing Africa' in mind. They might like to dress as an animal, an explorer, wear a colourful dashiki type shirt etc.

Also after half term, there will be some changes to the pick-up arrangements at the end of the school day as our building project commences. Children in Classes 1, 2 and 4 can be met in the playground and children in Class 3 at the front of the school. Please see the attached letter for more details.

Hope you have a good weekend and look forward to seeing you at the Carnival.
Best wishes, Theresa Mills

wear it pink

On Friday 20th October we will wear pink, raise money and make life saving research happen.

Why? Because breast cancer is the most common cancer in the UK. 1 in 8 women in the UK will develop breast cancer in their lifetime.

Please can the children wear something pink on Friday and bring a donation to raise awareness and funds for breast cancer research.

At the Charles Causley Poetry Competition presentation last Friday, Harvey was 'Highly Commended' for his poem 'Cornwall' which he wrote during a workshop at school.

I received a lovely email from one of the organisers of the North Cornwall Book Festival saying "undaunted by the audience, he read beautifully and distinguished himself still further by arriving in good time and looking very smart. In short, he was delightful".

Well done Harvey!

Please book places before 10.00am on Monday morning with payment for the rest of the week. Forms are available from the office or just email your request to:
