

Resource 1

Look at the resource below, which gives some examples of leaders.

Football manager

The person in charge of selecting players, planning their formation and strategy and motivating them to win matches! Frank Lampard is the manager of Chelsea Football Club.

Can you name any other managers? Do you play football? Do you have a coach or manager?

Prime Minister

The head of the government, who is in charge of leading the country. Our Prime Minister is Boris Johnson.

Headteacher

The person in charge of a school. Who is your headteacher?

School council

Children who represent their class when putting forward their views and help to make improvements to school.

Swimming school owner

The person who owns and is in charge of their own swimming school. They may employ other swimming teachers, who they will train and lead.

Supermarket manager

Part of their role involves giving other staff tasks, organising training and checking everyone is doing what they should be.

Chief constable

The person who has overall responsibility for leading their area's police force.

Have you come across any of these before?
Can you think of any other examples of leaders?