Newsletter No 22

Our theme this half term is HOPE

It has been another exciting week, which began with our Dance Club taking part in the Dance Festival at the Guild Hall. At Mr Bateman's "Choose Love" for Refugees Book Sale on Wednesday, he was overwhelmed with the generosity and compassion shown by so many children who bought a book and also donated their change to help the cause. On Wednesday we had a visit from Helen Lewis, a school's youth worker for the Preston and Blackpool area. After leading our Collective Worship, she commented on the wonderful behaviour of the children across school and remarked that Lea Endowed is like "a haven", which was very encouraging to hear.

Mrs Seagrave's Good Manners Award

Congratulations to Percysledge in Y1 who won my Good Manners Award last week. His wonderful manners and respectful attitude, shown in and around school, are a real example to our whole school family; we are delighted that he joined us in Year 1. Keep your light shining, Percysledge - you are a true Lea Endowed blessing!

Choose Love for Refugees Day

On Thursday, the whole school family, did a wonderful job of putting our Christian values into practice by getting creative through a range of learning opportunities in DT, Art, Music, writing and then sharing their works of love.

Together we raised £275.95 for Help Refugees, which will go a long way in helping to provide water, food, blankets, educational supplies etc for refugees. You can find more information at

Please see separate letter for more details including details of a Parents' session where you can find out more and ask any questions you may have.

Please send in a contribution of £3 per child or £5 per family in a named envelope to help cover part of the costs. Please pay on Parentpay.

Thank you for your support, CM Seagrave
