World Book Day

Despite the snow and the school closure on World Book Day (1st March), we were pleased to be able to reschedule our World Book Day celebrations to Thursday 8th March instead - and what a day it was!

The pupils and staff of Sandy Hill went to great effort and arrived in style, sporting their favourite book inspired fancy dress or pyjamas.

We held a World Book Day assembly, paired reading sessions (with the older pupils supporting the younger children) as well as a competition for the best outfit.

The children were each given a book token - please remember to use your token by 25th March.

We will be making a display within school linked to World Book Day. We would like photos of you reading to someone. This could be your family, a friend or even a pet! Simply bring in a photograph with your name and class on the back and we will add it to our display. We look forward to seeing this board bloom.

Congratulations to our World Book Day winners!

- 1st ~ Taylor Martin (The Gruffalo from the story The Gruffalo by Julia Donaldson)
 2nd ~ Liam Costa (The Joker from the DC Comic series Batman by Bill Finger)
 3rd ~ Evelyn-May Spencer (William Trundle from the story The Christmasaurus by Tom Fletcher)

After School Clubs - Monday 12th March 2018

Please be aware that all clubs, with the exception of Go Active, are cancelled due to the FOSHA Bake Sale & Competition.

The Big Battery Hunt

Sandy Hill is taking part in the Big Battery Hunt competition which encourages the recycling of used batteries.

Your child has brought home a container in which to collect AAA, AA, C & D size batteries. Full instructions are on the box. Please ask your friends and family to support your child with this fantastic competition. Prizes will be issued to schools who collect the most batteries. The competition will run until 20th April. Batteries collected after this date will not count towards the total, but will still be recycled. If you do not wish for your child to participate in this, please can you return the box to school. Many thanks for your kind support.
