

Allens Croft Primary School Newsletter

Monday 14th May 2018

Another busy couple of weeks at Allens Croft. Here are just a few highlights- Year 5 took part in a jam-packed cricket festival on Thursday and competed against lots of other schools. The children were really well behaved and once again, a credit to Allens Croft. Year 1 presented their Brazil Topic Assembly to parents and carers on Thursday afternoon and it was fantastic, with lots of dancing, music and acting. On Friday, Year 4 parents/carers had lunch with their children and many parents/carers attended the litter picking event later on the afternoon. It was really nice to see children and adults caring about our local area. Thank you for all the parents/carers who attended all of these events. Please check the calendar on the back of the newsletter for future events or go to our website- www.allcroft.bham.sch.uk.

Alongside this newsletter, you will have an important letter regarding online safety, as it has been brought to our attention that some children at Allens Croft are playing online games that are not appropriate for primary school age.
