This month's Christian value for life: HUMILITY

Tuesday 20th February 2018

Dear Parents,

Science Trip to Herstmonceux Observatory Centre tomorrow, Wednesday 21st February

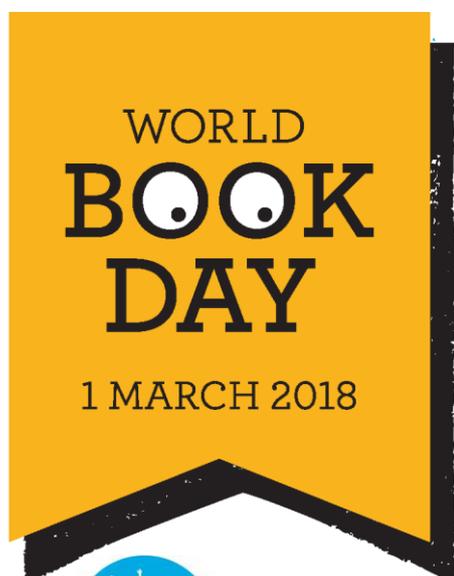

A reminder about our trip tomorrow. The trip will take place within school time so normal drop off and pick up times apply. Children should wear their school t-shirt and jumper but they can wear comfortable trousers, jeans or shorts with trainers.

The children will need to bring:

- Snack
- Extra drink
- Lunch including a drink
- (Reception, Year 1, Year 2 and children entitled to FSM will have free packed lunch provided)
- Waterproof jacket

All of the above needs to be carried around in a backpack all day, so please make sure your child has a backpack big enough to fit everything in.

The trip promises to be great fun and very enriching for our science learning. The pupils will all experience exciting hands-on exhibits, a workshop and an action-packed science show.

World Book Day 2018: Thursday 1st March

To celebrate World Book Day we will enjoy a day of book-themed learning and fun. Please can pupils choose a book to bring in. Children are welcome to dress up as their favourite character or if they prefer they could bring a prop!

You will find lots of great ideas at <http://www.worldbookday.com/> and we will also be holding our own book fair throughout the week commencing Monday 5th March.

Scarlet Fever

One of our pupils has suffered from scarlet fever and we are keen to remind parents to look out for symptoms. Please visit <https://www.nhs.uk/conditions/scarlet-fever/> for information about signs of scarlet fever and what you should do.

Welcome to Miss Bruce

We are delighted to welcome Miss Natasha Bruce to the team. Miss Bruce is working with Buttercups as part of her teacher training with the University of Brighton. She will be working on Mondays and Tuesdays until 20th March and then she will return to work every day with us from 16th April to 18th May 2018.

Buttercups Teaching Staff

We are pleased to announce that Mrs Slade will now teach Buttercups every Thursday and Friday until the Easter holidays now she has formally returned from maternity leave. Mrs Cotton will continue to work every Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, covering Miss Hunka's maternity leave.
