

Woodthorpe J.I. School

Policy for the use of images of children, young people and vulnerable adults

Purpose of policy

This policy sets out how Woodthorpe J.I. School will ensure the safety and welfare of children in our care when making photos/images of them.

Policy Application

Our policy applies to all staff, governors and volunteers working at the school as well as visitors.

Introduction

Schools need and welcome publicity. Children's photographs add colour, life and interest to articles promoting school activities and initiatives. Making use of photographs for publicity materials and to promote the school in the press can increase pupil motivation and staff morale, and help parents and the local community identify and celebrate the school's achievements. However, photographs must be used in a responsible way.

In May 2004, section 45 of the Sex Offences Act 2003 amended Section 1 of the Protection of Children Act 1978 it is now an offence to 'take, make, allow to take, distribute, show, possess with intent to distribute, or advertise indecent photos or pseudo photographs of children.

Woodthorpe J.I. School recognises the need to respect children's and parents' rights of privacy and is aware of potential child protection issues.

Images taking by parents, legal guardians or family members at a school event:

- Parents will be asked for their permission before photography is allowed (Appendix 1).
- All parents/carers are asked not to take photographs/videos during school events.
- Parents/carers are reminded not to use any photographs, inadvertently taken, of other children on the internet.
- The school will ensure that children who should not be photographed, for example those whose parents/legal guardians have refused consent, are not included in any images.
- Parents/carers can take images of their own child participating in school activities for family and personal use and, where possible, school will give them the chance to do this.
- The school will ensure that children are appropriately dressed.
- Use of cameras and other equipment will be monitored.

Images for school publications:

- The school will only take and use images that are appropriate and are considered to not be open to misuse.
- If an image of a child is used, the child's name will not be published. If a name is published, no image will be used without specific consent.
- Children and their parents/legal guardians will be made aware of why their picture is being taken and how it will be used.

- The school will ensure that images of a single child with no surrounding context of what they are learning or doing will be avoided.
- Children and parents should be encouraged to recognise the value of group photographs or recordings of school events.
- The school recognises that images must not be used to cause distress, upset or embarrassment.
- The school will use photographs that represent the diversity of the children/young people participating.
- Images will be kept securely.

Images for the school website and blogs:

- School websites and blogs are part of the internet and are more easily accessible than paper based school publications. The school will make sure that only appropriate images are used. Image filenames will avoid using children's names. Blogs are password protected.
- All staff have data protection training and know that they must not store images on their laptops or on memory sticks. Images on the school system are kept on the administration and staff drives, which are password protected. Images on the school system are checked annually and deleted.
- Only school staff have access to Ipads on which photographs of children may be taken. Photographs may be used on the class blog and then should be erased. Ipads are password protected.

Webcams:

- Webcams are a useful tool for learning. They can allow an individual or class to interact over the internet with others and support links between pupils in different schools, countries and cultures.
- A webcam will only be used in appropriate circumstances such as a normal class setting.
- Both children and teachers will be made aware of when a webcam is in use.

CCTV:

- The school may use CCTV in some areas of school property as a security measure.
- Cameras will only be used in appropriate areas and there will be clear signage indicating where it is in operation.

Children photographing one another

- Staff will supervise and maintain control over any photography that pupils do during on-school or off-site activities.
- Camera phones are less visible and can be used to bully or take inappropriate images. Children must hand camera phones into the office for safe keeping as outlined in our Care and Confiscation policy.
- If it is found that cameras or camera phones have been misused, the school will follow the disciplinary procedures as outlined in our anti-bullying/behaviour policy. In some cases it may be necessary for Woodthorpe J.I. School to contact children's social care and/or the police.

Please note that images taken by the media are not covered by this policy and are subject to a separate set of regulations.

Parents'/Legal Guardians' Consent to Take and Use Images of Pupils

Key Policy Points:

- Woodthorpe J.I. School recognises that a balance between the low risk of misuse and the numerous positive results of colourful, well produced school material is necessary.
- The school will only take and use images (photographs, videos and DVDs) that are appropriate and are considered to be safe from misuse.
- Children will be made aware of why their pictures are being taken and how they will be used.
- The school will take extra precautions to ensure that only appropriate images are used for the website.
- If it is found that a camera phone has been misused, the school will follow its usual disciplinary procedures.
- If an image of a child is used, the child's name will not be published. If a name is published, no image will be used without specific consent.
- Parents and legal guardians will be asked to sign an agreement that any images they take during school activities will not be used inappropriately.

DATA PROTECTION GOOD PRACTICE: TAKING PHOTOGRAPHS IN SCHOOLS

In October 2007 the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) published Good Practice Guidance aimed at Local Authorities and those working in schools, colleges and universities. It gave advice on taking photographs in educational institutions and whether doing so must comply with the Data Protection Act 1998.

Recommended Good Practice

The Data protection Act is unlikely to apply in many cases where photographs are taken in schools and other educational institutions. Fear of breaching the provisions of the Act should not be wrongly used to stop people taking photographs or videos which provide many with pleasure.

Where the Act does apply, a common sense approach suggests that if the photographer asks for permission to take a photograph, this will usually be enough to ensure compliance.

- Photos taken for official school use may be covered by the Act and pupils, students and parents/carers should be advised why they are being taken
- Photos taken purely for personal use are exempt from the Act

Examples

Personal Use:

- A parent takes a photograph of their child and some friends taking part in the school Sports Day to be put in the family photo album. These images are for personal use and the Data Protection Act does not apply.

Official School Use

- Photographs of students/pupils are taken for building passes. These images are likely to be stored electronically with other personal data and the terms of the Act will apply.
- A small group of pupils are being photographed during a science lesson and the photo is to be used in the school prospectus. This will be personal data but will not breach the Act as long as the children and/or their parents/carer/guardians are aware this is happening and the context in which the photo will be used.

Media Use

- A photograph is taken by a local newspaper of a school awards ceremony. As long as the school has agreed to this and the children and/or their parents/carers/guardians are aware that photographs of those attending may appear in the newspaper, this will not breach the Act.

The Data Protection Act should not be wrongly cited to stop people taking photographs or filming videos.
