

Access to free reading books and activities.

The Oak National Academy has joined up with The National Literacy Trust to offer access to free reading books. Different children's authors are sharing some of their books for free each week.

Each week there is a different author. The first author is Jacqueline Wilson and she is sharing 'Tracy Beaker'. There are activities that can be downloaded to complete after reading the book.

To access the books go to: <https://library.thenational.academy>

Once on the site you will need to scroll down to find the part where you can read the book.

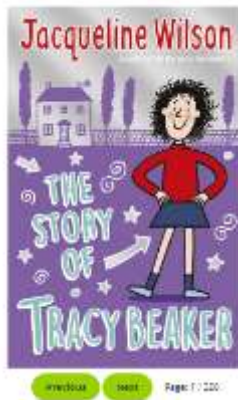

Spend time with Tracy Beaker and Jacqueline Wilson

Read The Story of Tracy Beaker for free, watch an exclusive video with Jacqueline Wilson and download fun activities.

Read now

Then scroll down again to find the front cover of the book.

The activities are available to download on the same page as the front cover of the book.

Download the activities

Enjoyed the book? Now you can have a go at these fun activities!

- Download the Tracy Beaker activity pack
- Download the Tracy Beaker word search
- Download the Tracy Beaker mask
- Take the Tracy Beaker test

Look out for different books each week