

12th November, 2018

Dear Parents/Carers,

Anti Bullying Week

This year at Hunter's Bar Junior school in recognition of Anti Bullying Week 2018, we will be asking all children and adults to come to school in odd socks on Friday 16th November, 2018.

What's it all about?

Odd Socks Day is designed to be fun! It's an opportunity for children to express themselves and celebrate their individuality and what makes us all unique. You do not have to raise money to take part, the most important thing is the message of Odd Socks Day.

Learning aims

Through high quality learning activities, it is intended that children will learn:

- bullying is a behaviour choice,
- they can set a positive example by opting to respect each other at school, in their homes and communities, and online,
- who to go to in school if they feel they are being bullied.

How you can help at home

By echoing the intended learning aims and praising your children precisely on the respectful actions, words or behaviour they have shown at home.
