A Message from Mrs Denham

Next week all classes will be holding their parent meetings. These meetings are so important and we always hope all parents can attend. Please phone or pop into the office to arrange a convenient appointment time. We have had several visitors into the school over the last couple of weeks and it's been lovely to hear their views on the school. They have all been very complimentary about your children's behaviour, attitudes to their learning, pride in their work and their support and respect for each other. It gives all the staff great pleasure to hear this.
