U11 Girls Football

On Thursday, the U11 Girls Football team took on Binstead Primary in the Knock Out Cup. The girls played incredibly well and went 1.0 up in the first few minutes; Binstead then equalised just before half time. After the break, the girls played some great football with Obehi scoring the winning goal. The girls will now play Dover Park in the next round. WELL DONE GIRLS!!!

U11 Girls and Boys Football Team

Children who have represented the school in the football cups and leagues will receive a medal for their skills, effort and teamwork. Last Friday, the U11 Girls and Boys team were really happy to receive them!

Year 2 PE

In PE this week, the children have been practising their catching and throwing skills in a variety of different games.

Sponsored Run Challenge

Over the last few weeks, children in all year groups have been trying to improve their long distance running. This week everyone took part in a running challenge to see which class could run the most miles.

All children worked really hard and were really determined to win.

Here are the results:

Corfe - 12 Miles

Biggleswade - 15 Miles

Balmoral - 16 Miles

Windsor - 17 Miles

Arundel - 18 Miles

Bamburgh - 20 Miles

Warwick – 28 Miles

Kendal - 38 Miles

Durham - 40 Miles

York - 39 Miles

Edinburgh - 32 Miles

Stirling - 30 Miles
