Family Support Worker

We are delighted to welcome our new Family Support Worker, Mrs Tina Sutton, to Laureate. Tina will be working on Thursdays and Fridays, and will be supporting children and families in lots of different ways, from providing one to one support and signposting to other services, to running parenting courses and offering informal drop ins. You will often see her on the gate at the start or end of the school day, so please stop for a chat.

If you feel that you or your child would benefit from some support, please do not hesitate to speak to Mrs Sutton, Mrs Dalton or Mr Perkins in confidence.

Dr Meg Bright

We were sad to hear that Dr Meg Bright, who was Chair of Governors at Laureate for a number of years, passed away last month. Her family took a collection and have kindly donated £1000 to the school, which we will spend on library books in her memory. We would like to offer her husband, Dr Michael Bright, and their family our sincere condolences.

Mental Health Award

We are proud to announce that we will be working towards the School Mental Health Award over the coming year. In order to achieve this accreditation, we will continue to develop ways to further improve the wellbeing of pupils, staff and families.

Wellbeing Gateway

A new Emotional Wellbeing Gateway is now available online to assist parents, carers, and professionals who are worried about a child or young person's wellbeing.

The information available on the new Emotional Wellbeing Gateway includes:

- Information about emotional wellbeing support;
- Practical advice for parents concerned about their child's mental health;
- Local services to support children, young people, and families.
