

WORKFORCE PRIVACY NOTICE

Acorn Education Trust has the legal right and a legitimate interest to collect and process personal data relating to those we employ to work within the Trust, or those otherwise contracted to work within the Trust.

Author	Sandra Reynolds
Adopted by Acorn Education Trust Board
Last Amended	October 2018
Review date	October 2021

Who processes your information?

Acorn Education Trust is the data controller of the personal information you provide to us. This means we determine the purposes for which, and the manner in which, any personal data relating to staff is to be processed.

Where necessary, third parties may be responsible for processing staff members' personal information. Where this is required, the Trust places data protection requirements on third party processors to ensure data is processed in line with staff members' privacy rights.

Why do we need your information?

Acorn Education Trust has the legal right and a legitimate interest to collect and process personal data relating to those we employ to work within the Trust, or those otherwise contracted to work within the Trust. We process personal data in order to meet the safeguarding requirements set out in UK employment and childcare law, including those in relation to the following:

- Academy Funding Agreements
- Academy's legal framework
- Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Act 2006
- The Childcare (Disqualification) Regulations 2009

Staff members' personal data is also processed to assist in the running of the Trust, and to enable individuals to be paid.

If staff members fail to provide their personal data, there may be significant consequences. This includes the following:

- Employment checks
 - Failure to provide the setting with ample proof of a right to work in the UK will prevent employment at Acorn Education Trust.
 - Employees found to be working illegally could face prosecution by law enforcement officers.
- Salary requirements
 - Failure to provide accurate tax codes and/or national insurance numbers could lead to issues of delayed payments or an employee paying too much tax.

Why is your personal data processed?

In accordance with the above, staff members' personal data is used for the following reasons:

- Contractual requirements
- Employment checks, e.g. right to work in the UK
- Salary requirements

Which data is collected?

The personal data the Trust will collect includes the following:

- Names
- National insurance numbers
- Characteristics such as ethnic group
- Employment contracts
- Remuneration details
- Qualifications
- Absence information

[NB. The above list is not exhaustive]

The collection of personal information will benefit both the DfE and LA by:

- Improving the management of workforce data across the sector.
- Enabling the development of a comprehensive picture of the workforce and how it is deployed.
- Informing the development of recruitment and retention policies.
- Allowing better financial modelling and planning.
- Enabling ethnicity and disability monitoring.
- Supporting the work of the school teachers' review body.

Will your personal data be sought from third parties?

Staff members' personal data is only sought from the data subject. No third parties will be contacted to obtain staff members' personal data without the data subject's consent.

Staff members' personal data may be obtained and processed from third parties where the law requires the setting to do so, e.g. medical records from a GP. The categories of data obtained and processed from third parties include:

- Employment dates from former employers
- Pre-employment checks for safer recruitment – eg DBS
- Financial information for taxation and pensions administration

Where data is obtained from third parties, the personal data originates from the following sources:

- Inland Revenue
- Former employers
- Disclosure and barring service
- Teacher Agency
- Supply agency

How is your information shared?

Acorn Education Trust will not share your personal information with any third parties without your consent, unless the law allows us to do so.

We are required, by law, to pass on some personal information to our LA and the DfE. This includes the following:

- Contractual information (anonymised)
- Allegations

How long is your data retained for?

Staff members' personal data is retained in line with the Trust's Records Management Policy.

Personal information may be retained for the following periods depending on the nature of the information. Data will only be retained for as long as is necessary to fulfil the purposes for which it was processed, and will not be retained indefinitely.

What are your rights?

As the data subject, you have specific rights to the processing of your data.

You have a legal right to:

- Request access to the personal data that Acorn Education Trust holds.
- Request that your personal data is amended.
- Request that your personal data is erased.
- Request that the processing of your data is restricted.

Where the processing of your data is based on your explicit consent, you have the right to withdraw this consent at any time. This will not affect any personal data that has been processed prior to withdrawing consent.

Staff members also have the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) in relation to how Acorn Education Trust processes their personal data.
