This week at The Meadows...

Happy New Year

Welcome back everyone! I hope you have all had a wonderful Christmas holiday. The children have settled back into school quickly this week and we are looking forward to the Spring Term ahead.

Staffing update

Mrs O'Leary popped into school on the Inset day with baby Edith and is hoping to come into school to see the children later this term.

Ms Thomson, who is the Executive Headteacher of the Great Learners Trust, will be working at The Meadows on a Friday as the Headteacher to help cover Mrs O'Leary's maternity leave. Mrs Moore will continue to be the Headteacher Monday to Thursday.

We also welcome Miss Pavli, who has joined the team as our Year 4 class teacher.

Academisation

We are expecting to academise and join the Great Learners Trust on the 1st February 2018. Ms Thomson and I are currently working on the re-branding of the school but I'd like to reassure parents that there will be no changes to uniform until September 2018. If you have any further questions please do not hesitate to come and see me.

Please help us improve our Ofsted rating!!!

The persistent poor attendance and morning lateness of some pupils continues to be a concern and this is something that you can help us improve. Please make sure your child attends school regularly and on time. As children are brought to school by an adult, the responsibility for arriving at school on time lies with you and you can make this difference to our school and your child's education.

Late Collection

Lateness at the end of the school day has become a significant issue. Some pupils are not being collected until 3.30pm on a regular basis and some as late as 3.45pm. Teachers have clubs and other commitments after school and it is not fair on both staff members and other pupils if clubs and commitments are delayed. From now on, any pupils not collected on time at 3.15pm will wait in the Rainbow room and the pupil's name and collection time will be recorded. If a pupil is collected late more than twice, a senior leader will speak to the parent regarding this.

Parent Liaison Group

Communication is really important and we are very keen to further improve the communication between school and parents. Therefore, we would like to set up a Parent Liaison Group who would be able to meet with Mrs Moore once a half term to be involved in new initiatives that could move the school forward and feedback parental views on events and schemes already in place. If you would be interested in joining this group please let the school office know. We would ideally like to have a parent to represent each class.
