

Literacy: Thought Provoking Questions

Ask a member of your family (preferably someone older than you) to ask you the following questions:

1. If you could 'win' something, what would it be and what would you do with it?
2. How long does it take to get to New York City, United States of America?
3. What does your Mum always say to you?
4. What job/profession would you like when you are older? Why?
5. What are the capital cities of; England, Wales, Scotland, Northern Ireland and Republic of Ireland?
6. At what age do you become an adult?
7. If you could change one rule in your family house, what would it be and why?
8. If you could be a superhero, what super power would you have?
9. What would you do to help save the planet? How could others help you?
10. Do you have a favourite meal or snack? What is it? Why is it your favourite?
11. How much does it cost to buy a house?
12. Why do you think it is important to be nice to one another?
13. List 3 things that are very important to you. Why are they important?
14. If you could visit one place, where would it be and why?

If possible, and if your parents are happy to, please submit your answers by video.
