Star of the week

Class 1 visited the Victory this week to make cheese soda bread with Matt. As always, the children were very well behaved but there were some messy hands. We mixed our ingredients carefully and then kneading it into a ball shape ready to go in the oven.

We peeked through the oven door and could see the cheese bubbling in the bread. It smelt delicious! We got to take them home to share with our families. We can't wait to know what we will be cooking next.

The countdown to Christmas has begun and we are looking forward to enjoying a few activities we missed out on last year. We will be busy making our usual cards and calendars but also a few items for the fair.

We have started to practise our Christmas Play 'Snowman at Sunset' which is a different message from our usual nativity.

We hope you can join us in our upcoming events to celebrate.

Class Two are full steam ahead in their preparation for the Christmas Fair. They have enjoyed designing their own handsewn Christmas Tree decorations and learned how to sew a running stitch and attach a button. They are now in the process of creating the product itself - we think you're going to love them!

Well Done!!!
