

Schools Autism training

Tier 1 - Raising Awareness & Making Sense of Autism - 90 mins

Basic autism awareness training for all staff within any education setting

Supports participants to:

- Identify the four key areas of difference
- Know the importance of understanding the individual pupil
- Identify the key areas to help pupils build positive relationships
- Develop an awareness of of the sensory and communication differences

Date to suit your school

Ideal for inset days or twilight at your setting. Delivered for a group

Cost: £300 delivered to a group in your setting

Tier 2 - Good Autism Practice - Full day

Training for staff and SENCos who directly support school-age pupils on the Autism spectrum, in both mainstream and specialist schools. It offers practical knowledge, hands-on tools & techniques to develop your practice.

7th November, Location: West Kirby School & College

Cost: £150 per person. Refreshments included

Places are limited so early booking is needed

7th & 8th January 2019 - Inset day training available at your setting

Delivered to a group in your setting. Cost £800 plus £6pp delegate pack

For more information or to book a place on the course contact:

Rachel Kelleher, aet@wkrs.co.uk tel: 0151 632 3201, www.wkrs.co.uk

West Kirby School and College is an accredited Autism Education Trust training hub and a specialist school and college. Training is delivered by our staff members, Nicky Tolley and Louise Gilmartin who can offer first hand advice and strategies.

Programme supported by  Department for Education