Being friendly, kind and supportive to others.

From the Old English work “godspel”, which literally means “good news” and it was originally spoken not written.

Deciding not to pay someone back when they hurt you.

‘Set apart for God’ and is more than just a spiritual word for ‘special’.

A time without any fights or wars. In a larger sense it can mean a state of quiet or clam that is not disturbed by anything at all.

Being without a home or comfortable place to stay.
