Revd Andy Bowden

My name is Andy Bowden and I am the Chaplain at All Saints Academy in Plymouth. I am married to Bethany and we have three children: Benjamin, Thomas and Verity.

I have spent many years working with young people. Before ordination I was the Youth Worker at St Andrew's Church in Plymouth for 9 years. After that I went to Theological College in Oxford and was ordained in 2011. My curacy took me to All Saints Church, Laleham, part of London Diocese. I spent four very happy years in Surrey, first as curate then as associate vicar, before swapping one All Saints for another and returning to Plymouth as Chaplain at All Saints Academy. I also have a youth advisory role within Plymouth Deanery, supporting the Bishop of Plymouth.

I am an avid armchair fan of most sports, now that my best playing days are behind me. I particularly enjoy watching rugby, following Tottenham Hotspur football club and cheering on various nieces and nephews in their sporting endeavours. Other passions include music, reading historical fiction and when I manage to get to the coast, surfing.

Rev Cathy Sigrist

I am currently an ex-officio Governor at both Bishop Cornish CofE School and Sir Robert Geffery's School in Landrake and have recently been appointed as a Trustee for the Bishop Cornish Education Centre.

I moved to Saltash in 2016 to become Priest-in-charge of St. Stephen-by-Saltash and St. Nicholas & St. Faith Parish churches in Saltash, St. Michael and St. Erney in Landrake and St. Mary's in Botus Fleming. Before moving to Saltash I served in a number of parishes in Kent.

During my ministry, I have been actively involved with both church and non-church schools as a Governor and Priest – helping to lead worship and helping students to develop and explore their own spirituality.

I am involved in the local communities in which I serve and am a Trustee of Saltash Foodbank and the Mabbot Hayward and John Buller Charities. I am also an active member of Saltash Churches Together.

The children in Year 2 thoroughly enjoyed playing with some great toys that they thought were really old fashioned! Was it just me that had toys like this when I was young?!

Year five enjoyed some quiet time painting using water colours whilst listening to relaxing music. The results were outstanding.
