Last week the children in reception were able to meet our alpacas, Isaac, Garrick and Gordon properly. They all got on famously! They were also visited by our local police officers who talked about how to help people.

Year 6 had an amazing day at Cotehele discovering what life was like in the Tudor times. Being members of the National Trust enables us to take the children to locations like this at a minimal cost.

Year 4 are currently studying the Romans and this week we were visited by a Roman soldier... or is it Poppy in disguise?

This week the Air Ambulance staff visited school and told all the children about some of the work they do and how they help people. The children were so inspired that the School's Council have requested that we hold a Yellow and Green Day when the children can come to school wearing those colours in order to raise money for the valuable work of this organization. The School's Council have chosen Friday 18th October and invite the children to contribute up to £1 for the day.

Parent Governor Election results will follow next week. Thank you.
