Dear Parents

We are pleased to inform you that plans are well under way for the building of our new school. The school will be on the Northfields site, Somerton and building will begin next summer 2019, ready for completion in September 2020. Further information will be released in the press and on social media within the next few days.

Somerset County Council will be holding a public consultation event on the Junior school site from 3.15pm - 6.30pm on Thursday 31st January 2019, to which parents and community members will be invited.

We will keep you updated with information as and when we receive it.

Yours sincerely

S Svenson
