

TELFORD INFANT SCHOOL

NEWSLETTER

Dear Parents and Carers,
There is so much to smile about at Telford Infants this half term. The children's love for learning is breathtaking and this morning excited Year 1 children have inundated me with facts about William Shakespeare and Reception have been explaining why some objects can roll and others can't. I even became involved in making a huge marble run to prove their claims!

A warm welcome to Mrs Louise Barnes who has joined the Reception team this term to provide additional support. Mrs Barnes undertook her Teaching Assistant training with us and it is lovely to have her back.

I hope you all have a lovely Bank Holiday weekend when it arrives!
Mrs Siân Oustayiannis – Headteacher

Don't forget that next Monday is a Bank Holiday and that school will be closed to children and staff!
