

Sickness

We are often asked how long should we keep children off school when they have been sick. Our guidance is that children should remain at home between 24 and 48 hours following the last bout of sickness or diarrhoea. Details on childhood illnesses and schools can be found at

<http://www.nhs.uk/Livewell/Yourchildatschool/Pages/Illness.aspx>