

The children of Y4 have today been watching the film of How to Train your Dragon, making notes and learning how to capture the key events in order to create character descriptions and write settings.

The children have demonstrated resilience and perseverance and earned themselves some extra Green Time from Mrs Whitford.

Well done Year 4 – lots of fabulous writing!