Girls Football Team

Our girls football team have taken part in a tournament at Manchester United's training ground, the Cliff. They represented the school fantastically well and were delighted to get through to the final.

Well done girls and thank you to Mr Lake for organising the event and accompanying the team.

Watch this space for details about the final!

Football Sessions

Fashion Show

The fashion show last week was a great success! All the hard work and preparation certainly paid off-the models looked amazing and did a fantastic job of show casing the gorgeous clothes from Flair Boutique UK.

Thank you to all the FOM volunteers involved in pulling the evening together, watch this space to find out how much the event raised.

The next FOM event is a film night on Thursday 27th February at 5.30pm. FOM are asking for suggestions for films to watch.

There is also a Mother's Day gift shop being run on Friday 29th March 2019.

Class Assembly

Well done and thank you to WN who did a fantastic job of their class assembly this morning, telling the school all about the origins of Chinese New Year.

They spoke beautifully, read clearly and acted out the story with confidence. Well done!

The next class assembly is on Friday 22nd February and will be led by 6S.

Guinness Book of Records

A big thank you to Alex who made the children in WN very happy with his donation of a Guinness Book of Records. Many a happy hour will be spent poring over the weird and wonderful records!

Letters Home

Letter to the parents of children in 5S

School Reading Books

Don't forget to keep looking for our school reading books at home. We have managed to recover lots of the missing ones but we are still looking for many more.
