Head Teacher's News

Dear Parents / Carers

I am really excited to advise you that we are planning a new school uniform for the next academic year. This uniform will reflect the high standards in behaviour and learning that we are striving to achieve at Our Lady of the Angels. Your views are important to us - so there will be a one week consultation period after half term for you to view the new uniform at the school and provide us with your feedback before we give it the final go ahead. We understand that some of you may just have bought new pieces of uniform for your child, so it will not become compulsory for current pupils until January 2019, although we would wish for as many children as possible to wear the new uniform as early in the Autumn term as possible.

This has been a great half term - much has been achieved and the staff have worked incredibly hard. The children were all very willing and happy to share their positive experiences of this half term in assembly. I continue to be impressed by the high standard of their manners and enthusiasm for learning and they continue to be an absolute credit to you. Happy half term everyone!

With best wishes

Mrs Harding

Attendance

If your child is sick please ring on the first day of absence and every other day thereafter. As part of our safeguarding duty we will try to contact you. If we cannot speak with you we ask South West Family Values to call at your address to ensure that you are all safe and well.

We do require evidence of all medical appointments.
