Inside school this week....

Thank you for the amazing artwork for the Book Plate Competition.

Congratulations to Harry, S, Daniel P, Jessica T and our overall winner Elsie O.

Thank you for your understanding last week during our "snow" closure. I hope you were able to enjoy the snowmen, snowballs and sledging that I have heard so much about this week. The snow appears to have vanished as quickly as it arrived, it did however mean that World Book day was postponed by a week.

It was lovely to see so many varieties of book characters from Harry Potter magic to the cuddly Peter Rabbit and of course all the classes have enjoyed the story "Cat in the Hat" read by Thing 1,2,3,4,5,6 etc. Children and staff at Hook Infant school really have inspired the love of books and a good story in each other. I hope you enjoy the photo collage of our day!

Unfortunately some sad news, Miss Ferris has tendered her resignation, she will be much missed by children and staff alike. I would like to take this opportunity to thank her for her hard work and dedication she has afforded Hook Infant School for the last twelve years. On a more positive note I am very pleased to say, Miss Ferris will still be running the Koosa after school club with Mrs Wilson and will be taking on Breakfast club and Holiday club here at Hook Infant School so her familiar face will remain part of our community.

Hidden Rocks of Hook

A massive positive response has been seen for the "hidden rocks". We have seen so many brightly coloured and decorated rocks in our show and tell time in class - so much so that we politely request that no more are brought into school!

We are happy to see your "find" at the door but they then need to be taken home please.
