Southridge First School - Governing Body's Annual Statement 2017 -18

The Issues faced and addressed by the Governing Body over the last year were:

- Monitoring of attainment and progress to ensure high standards maintained
- Enhancing site security – installation of internal fencing to ensure same level of security after 3.30pm when children stay for after –school clubs.
- Computing- purchase of i-pads
- Embedding Curriculum and Assessment Procedures
- Staffing changes – induction of new NQT in Yr 4
- Safeguarding Policies all updated in line with Keeping Children Safe in Education
- Induction and Involvement of new Governors
- Monitoring Sports Premium Funding and Pupil Premium Funding
- Ensuring all Health and Safety standards are met

The impact of the Governing Body on the school was:

- Standards have been maintained in all key phases - End of Reception GLD is 88%, Year 1 Phonics -90%, Year 2 SAT's standards in R,W and M significantly above national, Year 4 exit data demonstrates sustained progress by the time children leave our school to transfer to middle school.
- The Headteacher is supported by a strong Leadership Team
- The school is on a stronger financial footing – Finance Committee has been able to make improvements to the school building and playground
- 1 new member of the teaching staff – NQT brings new skills and qualities to the school
- Full awareness of safeguarding
- The school has achieved the Gold Award in School Games
