

Science

Key Concept: Being Scientific while exploring and investigating!

Conducting a series of experiments to develop a sense of awe and wonder in Science while improving our scientific approaches.

English

Key Concept: Is emotive or factual writing more important? Can factual writing be emotive?

Text: The Nameless Holiday. Creating diary entries, newspaper reports and poetry from this inspirational stimulus.

Maths

Key Concept: The use of measure in a series of concepts.

Number facts, rounding and using numbers in a series of problems.
Converting measures.
Interpreting measures and statistics

PSHE/RE

PSHE : Changing Me.

RE: How does faith help when things get hard?

Topic Name/Key Question

The World as a Global Village

Developing Awe and Wonder within the world around us

Key Concept: As our environment changes, do we stay the same?

Wow Starter/ Celebration Event

Wow starter: If the World was a Village of 100 People.

An exploration of our world, developing an understanding of important issues while thinking about future implications.

Geography/History

History: How does the history of Africa and Britain compare?

Geography: How can I find out about my local area. A focus on fieldwork.

Art/DT/Music

Art: To work on a collaborative weaving project that will reflect our local environment.

Music: An exploration of song. How can songs tell us about the environment?

PE/Computing

Key Concept: Using Spreadsheets to organise data.

PE: Swimming/Gymnastics and Athletics.