NEWSLETTER – 1st March 2019

Updates and reminders:

- This week we have said goodbye to one of our teaching assistants, Mrs Bridgement, who is moving on to a new role at another school. We are very grateful for all her hard work at Cavalry and wish her every success in her new job.
- Well done to the team of children in Y6 who organised a cake sale for Diabetes UK. They raised £83.
- Please can we remind you that we ask children to wear school uniform every day, and this does not include hoodies or sweatshirts with large logos even if they happen to be blue! There are also a number of children who 'forget' to bring PE kit to school, so it would be great see their PE kits in school every day of the week ready for use in lessons.
- We ask parents not to send nuts or products containing nuts for children's snack or packed lunch due to the risk for children and staff with allergies. This includes Nutella, which contains hazelnuts, so please do not send in Nutella sandwiches.
- It's Book Week next week. We hope lots of children will come along on Wednesday 6th to the Book at Bedtime (6 til 7p.m. for children in KS1) and Books after Dark (7.15 to 8.15 p.m. for KS2). Don't forget that on Thursday 7th March, World Book Day, the children are invited to dress up as a book character for the day – there is no charge for this.
