May he give you the desire of your heart and make all your plans succeed.

Psalms 20:4

It's exciting to have things to look forward to, what are you most looking forward to?

Activity

Draw some clouds or butterflies on a piece of paper and cut them out. You can write or draw the things you are looking forward to on them. Why not write a prayer on the back of them, telling God the desires of your heart.

Dear Father,

Thank you for giving us hopes and dreams. May we be encouraged to talk to you about them.

Help us to play our part in fulfilling those dreams and to ask for your help in doing so.

Help us to be interested in other people's dreams too and help them to succeed.

In Jesus' name,
Amen
