

Transition Policy

When pupils transfer to secondary school or new schools we comply with the common transfer process and ensure that the new school has detailed information of the child's achievement and individual needs, but that their books remain at our school. 'Special books' are sent home to encapsulate their thematic learning throughout the year.

Last revised - Autumn term 2015