Dear Parents

This week we found out that the current Covid restrictions are in place for another four weeks. The infection rate in Cornwall has leapt so I am asking that we all continue our good work and keep Cusgarne safe. If your child or a family member is showing signs or symptoms of Covid – please book a test and self-isolate until the results are known.

The teachers have started the parent-teacher consultations by 'phone. We have had a few phone calls which have been unanswered so we will keep trying.

On Tuesday, Tempest came in for class photos. They will be sending us through bespoke codes for our school so parents can order direct with them. Once received, we will send the information home via Arbor.

Next week is Safety Week. Alongside this bulletin is a letter giving parents information about the NSPCC Speak Out, Stay Safe initiative together with a link to resources for parents to use at home. We will be using the school resources from the NSPCC during the week which covers a broad range of topics. We will also be taking part in the mini police programme which includes dressing up, road safety and on-line safety. We will round off the week with a visit from the RNLI to talk to us about water safety and staying safe at the beach.

Children in Reception year – the school vision nurse will be visiting on Tuesday for vision screening of the children in our Reception year. If you do not want your child checked, please email us at hello@cusgarne.org

A message from Mrs Holmes:

Dear Cusgarne Families

After 11 happy years at Cusgarne, I am writing to let you all know, that I will be leaving school at the end of the term. My decision has been a difficult one to make but my life is now moving in another direction, and I am going to give more time to my family.

Cusgarne School is such a special place and you will never really know how dedicated all of the staff are. Behind the school doors, they work tirelessly to give the best for every child. I will miss my friends and I will miss seeing the children.

It has been a privilege watching your children grow and learn to spread their wings! From the small and sometimes shy, little ones to the mature, confident and thoroughly lovely big ones who leave us to begin new adventures.

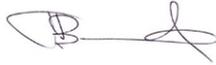

You will probably see me out and about on my walks so please stop and say 'Hi' or give me a big wave!

With fondest love

Clare Holmes

Have a super weekend.

Yours sincerely

Tim Barnard
