LO: To write a recount

Using your plans from yesterday, write a recount of your Easter holidays. Use the success criteria below to remind yourself what we need to include when writing a recount.

I have used punctuation and capital letters.	I have used verbs in the past tense.	I have included key information.	I have included details using descriptive language.	I have described my feelings
 A collection of colorful icons representing punctuation and capital letters, including a lightbulb, a question mark, a speech bubble, and the letters 'A', 'B', and 'C'.	 A close-up image of a clock face showing the numbers 1 through 12, with a spiral pattern in the center.	 A hand with fingers pointing to the words 'Who?', 'What?', 'When?', 'Where?', and 'How?' written on them.	 A close-up image of a vibrant pink flower with many petals.	 A collection of six different emojis representing various emotions, including smiling, crying, and neutral faces.
