

A Midsummer Night's Dream

Long ago there was a forest.

In

the

forest

lived

some fairies.

The fairy king, Oberon, wanted to play a trick on Titania, his queen.

Oberon asked Puck to find a magic flower that has magic powers to make people

1st

fall in love with the first thing they see.

A group of actors were in the forest practicing their play. Puck decided to play a trick on them and used the flower to change Bottom's head into a donkey's.

+

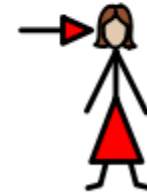

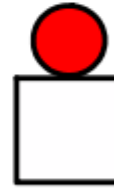

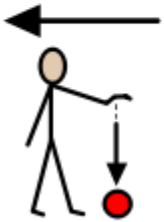

Puck

found

Titania

sleeping

and

dropped

the

flower

juice

on her.

When

Titania

woke up

she

fell

in love

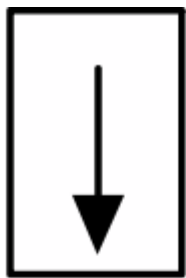

with

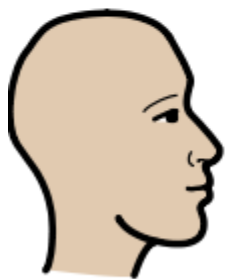

Bottom.

But Bottom has a donkey's head!

Oberon reversed the spell on Titania and Bottom.

+

Oberon and Titania were friends

again.

