MESSAGE FROM MISS HURFORD

What a day! The children have certainly been busy! We welcomed Rev Glyn, Mandy and Steph to school today. The children learnt the meaning of Christingle, made their own ready for the beautiful service in church. Thank you to all of you who were able to attend, this is always a special service. The choir sang beautifully at the senior citizens lunch, it was wonderful to share our talents outside with the community. Thank you to Mr Snow for all his hard work and providing this opportunity for the children. The Christmas Fair has been a great fund raising event. A huge thank you to the PTFA for organising and raising money for our children. The Christingle boxes that the children bring home should be returned for a week today. And a very Happy Birthday for Mr Snow...the big 40!! Have a lovely weekend,

Miss Hurford

British Values

The restaurant chain Frankie and Benny's is hoping to stop customers from using their mobile phones while eating dinner. It believes it is the first large company in the UK to start the scheme and is offering a 'children eat free' bonus to anyone who agrees.

The campaign will run for a week at all of the company's 250 restaurants and may be rolled out permanently depending on its success.

Things to talk about at home...

Do you think there are times that mobile phones and iPads should be allowed when we are having meals? When are these times?

At Frankie and Benny's, they want to put people's phones in a locked box whilst they are eating? Do you think this is a good idea? Why?

Following on from our Early Help for Mental Health workshops yesterday, please see some of the "10 a day" choices to help balance our mental health.

Christmas is coming so it is time to decorate our house trees!

Each family house has a tree which will be displayed in the foyer of the school. We are running a competition where families can make decorations to hang on their house tree.

Children and adults are welcome to enter but please name each decoration.

Every decoration will earn a golden point towards their family total. Decorations will be judged and prizes awarded on Wednesday 19th December.

Please start bringing in decorations from Monday 10th.

Thank you and have fun making them!
