Aim for the highest.

Our vision:

Believing and achieving together to aim for the highest.

MESSAGE FROM MISS HURFORD

Another week has flown past, Christmas is but a distant memory and we continue to strive, moving the children's learning and the school forward.

As a Church of England school the school Vision should be linked to a parable. Our vision is: Believing and achieving together to aim for the highest. We have chosen the parable: The Wise and Foolish Builders. We believe that the rock symbolises our school values. The values are embedded in all that we do and believe in this school. Therefore they are an integral part of each child and adult within the school. When the children leave us in year 6, we believe they will leave with these solid values, enabling them to aim for the highest in all that they do, have a healthy and positive outlook and be a valuable member of society.

Parable: The Wise and Foolish Builders

24 "So then, everyone who hears my words and puts them into practice is like a wise man. He builds his house on the rock. 25 The rain comes down. The water rises. The winds blow and beat against that house. But it does not fall. It is built on the rock. 26 But everyone who hears my words and does not put them into practice is like a foolish man. He builds his house on sand. 27 The rain comes down. The water rises. The winds blow and beat against that house. And it falls with a loud crash."

We will be sharing the parable with the children over the next few weeks, to deepen their understanding of the purpose of the school values and aspirations we have for all the children.

Have a good weekend

British Values

A recent report by United For All Ages, claims that bringing young and older people together can tackle many different issues including loneliness and wellbeing. It claims there are many benefits of sharing time together including better mental health and improved confidence, language and social skills for everyone. Projects with old and young people can also boost confidence, skills and opportunities for children while helping to change attitudes towards ageing.

Things to talk about at home...

- How much time do you spend with people who are of different ages to you?
- When you are spending time with people who are either older or younger, what types of activities do you take part in? Are they always different from the things you do with people your own age?
- Whose responsibility do you think it should be to organise opportunities for younger and older people to spend time together?
