

Why is school different?

School is different at the moment.

Some children are staying at home.

Some children are going to school.

I might go to a different school.

I might do different things.

I might see different children.

This is ok. It is not forever.