NED Certificates this week:

Congratulations to Maya and Tamsin for Completing some tricky fraction work this week and to Peter and Ashley for being polite and showing good manners all of the time.

 Emergency School Closure Information Forms 2019 – If you have not already done so, please complete and return the form on Monday. If you need another form, please ask at the school office. Thank you to parents who have already returned their forms.

Rotary Club ‘Youth Speaks’ public speaking competition –

We would like to say a MASSIVE well done to Freddie, Thomas and Lewis on getting through to the South West Final of the Rotary Club’s ‘Youth Speaks’ public-speaking competition! Our school always does exceptionally well in this competition, but to get through to the final is an outstanding achievement. Well done boys, you have made us so incredibly proud! They will now perform again on Saturday 16th March – we have everything crossed for you!

Cornwall School Games News – Year 5/6 football team played in a tournament this week playing five games in total. From this they won two, lost two and drew one.

The team consisted of: Tom C, Sam A, Eden, Jacob S, Oliver G, Louie, Brandon, Cameron and Thomas R all of who played brilliantly with excellent sportsmanship and superb communication. Mrs Richards and Mrs Ellis were incredibly proud of their performance.

Mark's Ark - The children in Releath and Trenoweth class had a fantastic time finding out about and handling a variety of different animals, birds and reptiles on Monday afternoon. A huge thank you to Miss Williams for organizing this for us!

Children's Mental Health week - All classes have been involved in a number of different activities this week to support good mental health and to build and support self esteem. We enjoyed taking part in 'time to talk' day yesterday too. We have placed a number of useful websites to support you and your child in this subject on our school website under the 'pupil welfare' heading and are looking forward to continuing this work throughout the year as part of our healthy schools initiative.

School Council news - This week, the School Council met with Karen Wallens, the area manager of Chartwells, to discuss making tuck options healthier and more varied. A new rota and price list will be sent out next week to start after half term.

Safer Internet Day – The school marked Safer Internet Day on Tuesday with lessons in key stage 2 dedicated to the theme of understanding consent in a digital world. For the latest information about e-safety please see the ‘On-line Safety Newsletter for Parents’ pdf under the Crenver or Pengelly class tab on the school’s website or visit the following web-address for more information:
<https://www.saferinternet.org.uk/>

Guitar and Drum Lessons– If your child would like to learn to play the guitar with Mr. Collington, or drums with Mr. Hendry, they both have spaces available. Please see Mrs. Coates for more information.

Local Governing Body – The governing body reviewed and adopted a number of school policies during their meeting on Wednesday evening. Please find the up-dated versions on the school's website under the 'Governors' or 'Pupil Welfare' tab:

- Accessibility Plan
- SEN Information Report
- Collective Worship Policy
- Foundation Stage Policy
- Mathematics Policy

Scholastic Book Fair and World Book Day – The Book Fair once again will be in school on 14th and 15th February as well as after half term on 26th and 27th February. Please come and see the huge range of books on offer. This will co – inside with World Book day on Thursday 7th March where the children will be able to dress up as their favorite book character and take part in some exciting book related activities. If you are able to help Miss. Phillips with the Book Fair, please let her or the office know. Thank you.

Rocksteady Music School – There are a few vacancies for sessions on Friday mornings should your child wish to participate. Please see Mrs. Coates or Miss. Phillips for further information.

KEYRING FOUND: If you have lost a keyring fob which may be important for your car insurance, please see Mrs. Coates. Thank you.

 Half Term Family Cookery Workshop - Little Kitchen Magicians & Transformation CPR are working together again to provide a FREE cookery workshop to families (who receive Free School Meals) in the Camborne & Redruth area. During the workshop, families are invited to cook a meal together, enjoy breakfast, drinks and snacks, takeaway a hot nutritious family meal and each family will be given a FREE SLOW COOKER! Plus there are art activities for the children. It's essential to prebook as space is limited! Families can sign up online via:
